THE OCALA

THE NEWSPAPER—"WHAT IS IT BUT A MAP OF BUSY LIFE, ITS FLUCTUATIONS AND VAST CONCERNS."

VOLUME 46, NUMBER 25

OCALA, FLORIDA, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 17, 1909.

Local and Personal

Weihe, the Jeweler.

Mr. J. Carsterns went up to Jacksonville Wednesday to visit her sister, Miss Sara Agnew.

Rabbi Jacobs of Jacksonville spent Wednesday afternoon in Ocala. He was on his way to Tampa.

Cheapest and best for Christmas, at Weihe, the Jeweler.

Mr. Jesse Neeley of Summerfield was a visitor to Ocala Wednesday. He was en route to Jacksonville.

Mrs. Edward Ditto and children of Enterprise have come to Ocala to reside, and have rented the Carter residence near the school house.

If the council is not in harmony with the mayor it seems to us that of Mr. J. H. Warkman. the vote of Tuesday is an indication for it to get busy and put itself in position to act in concert with him.

college at Staunton, Va., where she is The grounds are being sodded and fer- was entirely covered in white, the and fragrant and beautiful white car a student at the Stuart Hall College, tilized and will be sowed with winter whole forming a beautiful frame for nations and chrysanthemums and one will spend the holidays with her cousin, Mrs. McCredie, formerly Miss Nelsie Curd, at Salisbury, N. C.

Cheapest and best for Christmas, at Weihe, the Jeweler.

their attractive little daughter, Mary, are expected to arrive in Ocala early next week. They will spend the Christmas holidays with Mrs. Bird sey's parents, Col. and Mrs. John M. Martin.

Mr. W. E. Martin, one of Marion's so successful. He will be in evidence most successful farmers of the Moss next year. Mr. Payne is acknowledg Bluff section, was a visitor to Ocala on Tuesday, and made this office a pleasant call. He says the crops in his ful in the cultivation of corn. He section are fine this season, and especially the cane, and everybody is now busy making syrup.

Rogers-Tiller Co., at Lynne, small the soil is rather stiff, and it will re mouse-colored horse mule. can have same by paying feed bill and cost of this advertisement. 12-17-1t ers can plant their oats.

The friends of Mr. George Pasteur will be delighted to know that he was Cheapest and best for Christmas, at able to be out yesterday. He has been quite sick for several weeks.

> Mrs. Maizie Lyles and her little daughter, Dorothy, have returned from Maizie, where they spent the past two weeks with relatives.

Cheapest and best for Christmas, at Weihe, the Jeweler.

day. He is grand chancellor of the bey performing the ceremony. Knights of Pythias and was a distinday night.

The DeLand people are making speorable occasion. Ocala will be repre sented on the program in the person of bamboo vines, and at intervals parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Phil-

Cheapest and best for Christmas, a Weihe, the Jeweler.

Miss Jean Teague, who is attending are being put into excellent shape. and the white tulle bows. The floor and palms were used as a background, by the educational department of the attendants made when they had taken the floral decorations. Woman's Club of Ocala. It is hoped their places. that an effort will be made to keep the cattle off the streets, as they are church was crowded with friends to were Mr. and Mrs. Phillips, Mr. and doing a great deal of damage to many Mr. and Mrs. Albert H. Birdsey and of the pretty lawns and flower beds of val of waiting a musical program was Vardaman and Miss Mary Phillips, and the second second

Mr. M. L. Payne was in from Fair field Tuesday. He was sick at the time of the fair and regretted very much his inability to attend it. He expressed his gratification that it was ed as one of our most successful farm ers, and has been especially success plants a fine variety—a kind that is rarely attacked by the weevils. We hope that he will try and capture the 'Boozer prize" at the next fair. Mr. TAKEN UP-On December 8th by Payne says that in his neighborhood quire another rain before the farm

BRILLIANT WEDDING SOLEMNIZED

Miss Anne Mixon Becomes the Bride Mr. D. G. Haley of Mississippi.

wedding of Miss Anne Mixon and Mr. stood under the large white wedding DeWitt Greenwood Haley of Jackson, bell. Mississippi, which was solemnized at Hon. H. Clay Crawford, secretary of eight o'clock Wednesday night at the played softly on the organ and imstate, was a visitor to Ocala Tues- first Baptist church, Rev. H. E. Gabguished guest of our local lodge Mon-decorations and for this wedding it and Miss Connor for the bride and looked exceedingly beautiful. The groom and their attendants to leave palm, cedar and magnolia trees were the church. used as a background, and many love- After the wedding ceremony the atrally there on December 28-30, a mem- from a large white wedding bell in the special friends of the family were en-The grounds of the priamry school ing was twined with vines and leaves with a touch of pink. Handsome ferns lovely voice, sang d'Hardelot's "Be- and viewing the large collection o Mary Connor the violin obligato.

Shortly after 8 o'clock Mendelssohn's well. ed in couples, a gentleman up one ing at the reception were Mrs. T. H. aisle and a bridesmaid up the other, Johnson, Mrs. S. T. Sistrunk, Mrs. J. groomsman following a bridesmaid in Mrs. Robert Blake. church they crossed to opposite sides, lovely in its decorations of white and forming two lines facing the bride and green, and a buffet supper was served Ray of Rockwell and Mr. Alfred Beck, genia Fuller, Grace Hatchell and Cobalance of the party.

entered with Mr. Joseph Bell, Miss Annie Atkinson with Mr. C. L. Sis- ty. It was a round table, covered runk, Miss Pauline Sullivan with Dr. Alachua, Miss Maggie Lee Bryant of Mississippi with Mr. John Pelot of Miss Rachel Mixon of Jacksonville, while through it all was an artistic with Mr. Emmett E. Robinson.

The bridesmaids all wore rarely beautiful white crepe de chene gowns, pearl trimmings Their flowers were Preceding the bride came her only ister, Miss Mary Phillips, whose lovey gown of soft white chiffon over pink gave the only color note to the wedding. Her flowers were a lovely bouquet of beautiful white roses.

As the bride started up the aisle with her father, Mr. Charles J. Phillips, the music changed to the familwhich heralds the "coming of the bride."

Never had Miss Mixon looked lovelier than on her wedding night. Her gown was exquisitely lovely, made of Duchess satin, almost entirely covered with beautiful Duchess lace. It was also trimmed in chiffon and pearl ornaments, and her long tulle veil was black velvet hat, trimmed with a large caught to her pretty brown hair with white bird. valley lilies, these dainty blossoms extending almost the entire length of her yeil in a shower effect. Her flowers were a shower bouquet of bride's roses and valley lilies, and she was a She has been a frequent visitor in picture of loveliness.

altar by his best man, ex-Governor most cordially to her new home. Mixon the wife of Mr. Haley. During most popular young citizens.

Beautiful in every detail was the the nuptial yows the young couple

During the ceremony Prof. Pike mediately after the benediction had been pronounced Mendelssohn's wed-This church lends itself readily to ding march was played by Prof. Pike cial efforts to make the educational iy ferns banked the altar. Radiating tendants and quite a number of the center to the side walls were garlands tertained at a reception by the bride's through the garlands were hung nu-lips, at their home on South Third bows of white tulle. The organ rail- fully decorated in green and white, grass seeds. This work is being done the picture the bridal couple and their large vase of pink carnations formed Receiving in the parlor, standing Long before the hour of eight the under a wedding bell of white flowers, witness the nuptials, and in the inter- Mrs. DeWitt Greenwood Haley, Mr. rendered by three accomplished muland a pleasant hour or more was spent by the guests extending the best Mrs. W. J. Byrne, who has a very of good wishes to the bride and groom cause," and "The Rose of My Life," by very handsome gifts which they rethe organ accompaniment and Miss displayed in the back parlor, and they were very beautiful and useful as wedding march, played by Prof. Pike: During the hours of the reception and Miss Connor, announced the ap-little Miss Marie Burnett and Charles proach of the bridal party, who enter- Fishel played very sweetly, and assist-each aisle, and at the front of the The dining room was especially groom. The two ushers, Mr. Edward by Misses Betty Wray McIver, Euons which formed an aisle for the crackers, olives and salted almonds was served, followed by a delicious Miss Rebie Marders of Mississippi desert, with cake, coffee and mints.

The table was very lovely and dain with a handsome Battenburg lace Clarence Taylor of Mississippi, Miss cloth. The center piece was a large Carrie Williams with Dr. Thomas of vase filled with magnificent bride's roses, and almost biding from view the top of the table were billows of Jacksonville, and the first bridesmaid, white tulle and white satin ribbon, tracery of delicate asparagus fern.

The chandeliers were twined with vines and shaded with white. The with ferns, white carnations and fruit shower bouquets of white carnations, and the walls were draped with bam > in the dining room the souvenirs of the evening, little gilt wedding bells, vere presented to the guests by Miss Mattle Williams and Miss Florence

Mr. and Mrs. Haley left on the early morning Seaboard for Atlanta, and to night in that city they will be the guests of a theater party, given by iar strains of the Lohengrin march, Mr. Vardaman and Mr. Taylor. From Atlanta they go direct to Jackson Miss., where they will make their

> The bride's traveling gown was ailored suit of Elephant's breatl broadcloth, with which she wore silk waist, gloves and shoes to match With this costume she wore a big

Mrs. Haley as Miss Mixon has been very popular during her young lady mer. hood in this city, and it is with much regret that her friends part with her. Jackson, and already has many warm Mr. Haley was accompanied to the friends there, who will welcome her

Mr. Haley is a member of one of whose private secretary Mr. Haley Mississippi's best known families, and was at the time he was the governor, is a young gentleman of splendid They entered from the vestry and met qualifications, and has a most prom-Miss Mixon and the maid of honor, ising future. He is assistant commisand Mr. Gabbey, using the ring ser- sioner of agriculture for the state of vice, spoke the words that made Miss Mississippi, and is one of Jackson's for the Haley-Mixon wedding, Mr. Emmett E. Robinson, one of the grooms-FLORIDA greatly enjoyed by the young who were Mr. Robinson's guests.

Smoker for Governor Vardaman Tuesday night, after the rehearsal

The historical cantata, Joan of Arc. was very beautifully rendered by the students of Stetson University at the university last Friday evening. One Company men, gave a smoker especially in hon- of the soprano singers in the chorus or of the groom and his best man, ex- of this beautiful oratorio was Miss Governor J. K. Vardaman. This af- Clara Johnson of this city, who has fair was a very pleasant one and was an exceedingly sweet voice Miss greatly enjoyed by the young men Johnson will return home next week for the Christmas holidays.

Before Xmas.

You Will no Doubt Rush in Town next week to do your Christmas Shopping, merous smaller white wedding bells, street.

and between each bell were butterfly The entire house was very beauticide who to give your patronage AT A STORE "THAT WILL TREAT YOU RIGHT"

In your rush you may buy something that you really did not want, if you bought same Fabian Rose. Prof. W. S. Pike played ceived. The wedding presents were here, you can get it exchanged or get the full purchase price retunded.

We will give you your money's warth and the next couple alternating, thus a K. Dickson, Mrs. W. P. Edwards and at the same time guarantee satisfaction.

Our goods are marked in plain figures to entered first, carrying the white rib- rinne Williams. A salad course, with prevent you from paying more.

> We want your Christmas trade and we deserve it, give us a call and we will tell you why.

Our lines of wearing apparel for men, women and children are complete and we are beautifully fashioned with silver and mentel and sideboard were banked showing the latest styles in same.

> Shoes for every member of the family will be found at our store. Hats for old and young, men, women and children are on our shelves.

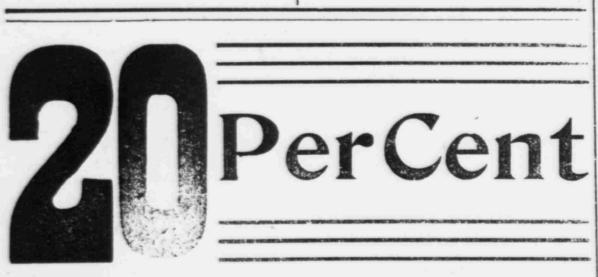

> We also have a line of Toys, Dolls and other things to make the young folks happy, the prices are the lowest in the city.

Try us and you will always be our custo-

Yours for fair dealing,

Formerly THE VARIETY STORE.

DISCOUNT From Now Until Jan. 1, 1910

N all Clothes in our store including the "Hart, Schaffner & Marx," "A. B. Kirschbaum," and other well known and guaranteed lines, we offer a discount of 20 per cent for CASH, from now until Jan. 1st, 1910.

We find our selves overstocked on Winter Clothing and the season is not as cold as we anticipated, so we offer this remarkable discount for CASH ONLY.

Why buy "Cheap" Clothing. when you can get Good, Guaranteed Clothing CHEAP.

Full Line of SHIRTS, NECKWEAR, James K. Vardaman of Mississippi, FANCY VESTS, GLOVES, UN-DERWEAR, SHOES, HATS and CAPS, VALISES and HANDBAGS.

Clothing & Shoe Guarantee OCALA HOUSE BLOCK

OCALA,